

TLP Cultivation Event Policies and Guidelines

Policies:

Teen Living Programs does not endorse any products or protocols.

Teen Living Programs reserves the right to decline association with any event or organization for any reason, including its belief that such an association may have a negative effect on the credibility and/or reputation of Teen Living Programs.

Teen Living Programs cannot make any investment, pay for, or reimburse any expenses incurred as a result of a cultivation event. This means that the cultivation event coordinator/event must cover all expenses prior to remitting the net revenue to Teen Living Programs.

Teen Living Programs is not responsible for any financial loss and may withdraw support of the cultivation event should any activity be discovered that undermines Teen Living Programs' mission or reputation.

Please note that Teen Living Programs has the right not to participate in your event and does not assume any legal or financial liability for your event. Teen Living Programs must approve, prior to printing and distribution, any use of its name, logo and/or information regarding youth homelessness. After Teen Living Programs approves your event, you must sign a Statement of Understanding. A staff member can walk you through these details.

Guidelines:

Cultivation events must be promoted and conducted in a manner that avoids the appearance of Teen Living Programs endorsing any product, firm, organization, or service.

The cultivation event coordinator should contact Teen Living Programs within a timely manner (preferably six to eight weeks prior to the event date) to seek guidance and request resources. An Event Interest Form and subsequent Memo of Intent must be completed and approved prior to conducting a cultivation event for Teen Living Programs.

The official logo of Teen Living Programs should be appropriately used in conjunction with such an event, and may not be altered in any way. Any use of the Teen Living Programs' logo must adhere to established graphic standards.

Teen Living Programs asks that you send in the revenue to Teen Living Programs from your cultivation event within 30 days of the event.
